

Hello Seniors & Parents,

As a reminder, Tuesday, May 31st is our Senior Honors Ceremony for invited students. All senior honors students should arrive by 5:30pm in their gowns, no caps. The program begins at 7:00 pm. Rehearsal for this event is on Tuesday at 9am in the cafeteria.

Last Thursday, I met with students and reminded them about some important things before they received their cap and gowns. I included a few of those points here:

- Senior students shouldn't be on any DPS property unless they have official business; specifically they should not be near Edsel Ford or Fordson.
- The dress for both senior honors and commencement is dressy. Boys a collared shirt, no jeans, no shorts, dressy shoes. Girls, dress appropriately for the day; consider wearing flats or wedges - as spike heels on the grass at commencement and coming down steps at honors can cause problems. Students in shorts or jeans will not participate.
- Friday, June 10th is commencement rehearsal at 9:00 am in the auditorium. You have to be in attendance if you are planning on walking at graduation. If you are not at rehearsal you will not participate. If there is a legitimate conflict, you must contact me prior to rehearsal at jebrilz@dearbornschools.org.
- June 11th is commencement and the senior party. We begin lining up at 8:30am on the Tennis Courts, this is the only time you need your cap. Make sure you are on time as we will begin without you.

Do not decorate your caps, bring water bottles, bring noise-makers, inflatable balloons, or anything else that will distract the ceremony including flips, dancing, or anything else after you cross the stage; you're the main attraction but so is everyone else. After commencement, you're going to need to get your diploma and yearbook. The senior party is at 9pm.

- At commencement, our expectation is that we all enjoy ourselves within reason and respect the event. Do not spoil the event for your families, friends, or yourself..

Thanks

Principal Jebril
